

X in a Box / Story Xperiential (the Program)
Participant Agreement and Code of Conduct

I understand and agree to all of the following:

1. The work that my team, or I, submit(s) will be our own. I/We will not copy or plagiarize any other person or company's art, story, photographs, music, film or other work. I/We will not take credit for anyone else's work.
2. I will not copy any of the work shared with us by the Industry experts, storytellers and/or artists. I understand that I cannot claim that work as my own, or directly imitate it in producing my own work during the program.
3. My team's submissions will be moderated by the Program directors. I understand that any works that violate the Program's standards by including any inappropriate content will not be posted.
4. I will comply with the User Agreement for the X in a Box/Story Xperiential portal.
5. My failure to comply with the Program requirements or this Code of Conduct is grounds for me and my team to be cut from the Program with no refund of cost incurred by your account.

Agreement Regarding Pixar and other industry organizations: I understand that Pixar and its related companies, and other industry organizations, including but not limited to Blue Sky Studios, Dreamworks, Netflix, Baobab Studios, Locksmith Animation, and others, are involved with many projects on an ongoing basis, and that those projects may include elements similar or identical to those in my work for this Program. In the course of my participation in this Program, some of my original work may be seen by Pixar and other industry organization employees. I understand and agree that no future Pixar, Disney or other company's project will or will be deemed to constitute a derivative work or an infringement of any kind of intellectual property right I may hold in any original work I share during the Program. In exchange for the experience and benefits of participating in the Program, I covenant and agree not to make or bring any claim against any industry organization including Pixar, its parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, employees, or any related party arising out of or related to any intellectual property rights, moral rights or any other rights I may have or be deemed to have in any work to which I contribute and which is submitted as part of the Program.
